THE VANUATU NATIONAL YOUTH AUTHORITY (VNYA)

- The Vanuatu National Youth Authority Act was initiated and enacted to address the following
 1. Provide legal framework for the establishment of the Youth Network & Youth Representative from the National right down to the Villages throughout Vanuatu
 2. Act like a regulator to the Youth Work in Vanuatu and to manage or coordinate the engagement of the all stakeholders involved in the Youth Development Sector

OBJECTIVE OF THE VNYA

The objectives of this Act are:

- to provide coordination, direction and support the development of youth programs in Vanuatu; and
- to establish higher standards of youth development programs in all youth related service delivery including training pathways for out of school youth; and
- to improve the participation of youths in youth development programs, national platforms and services; and
- to support and encourage excellence, leadership and innovative performance of youth and youth service providers through capacity building programs, incentives and research;
