

Follow-Up Workshops and Trainings to promote Sustainable Energy in Tuvalu

Sustainable Energy & Business Start-up Workshop

3rd August 2023

Funafuti

Tuvalu

Sustainable Energy & Business Start-up Workshop

“Introduction and Setting the Scene”

Participants Introduction

1. Name
2. Organization
3. Position

Session 1: Introduction to the workshop and setting the scenes

Objectives:

1. Promote the SE business start-up and opportunities from the Tuvalu Energy Policies NDCs and other National Strategic Plans
2. Promote Gender balance in Energy sectors and employment opportunities for youth on Sustainable Energy.

Expected Outcomes

1. Increased new business start-up and entrepreneurship opportunities that would be create by the draft Energy Bill and national energy plans /strategies.
2. Promoted the gender balance in the energy sectors and raise awareness of business and employment opportunities for women and youth on SE.
3. Increased awareness of PCREEE supporting initiatives to strengthen the capacity of private sectors on business creation, the regulator on regulating the utility, Energy Association etc.

DAY 4

Session 2.1: Overview on Tuvalu Energy Sector [Department of Energy]

- a. What are the current national energy sector policies /roadmap /plan and its targets?
- b. On-going Progress and Achievements from the current National Energy Policies and roadmaps/Plans
- c. Introducing the Tuvalu Energy Bill – brief on its contents and the progress to date?
- d. What is the role of the Energy Department as a regulator?
- e. On-going and planned energy projects /programs
 - o SPC – biogas projects
 - o MEPSL

DAY 4

Session 2.2: Overview on Tuvalu Energy Sector [Tuvalu Electricity Corporation]

- a. What are ongoing and upcoming RE projects
- b. Progress toward achieving the National RE Ambitious Targets.
- c. Private Sector business opportunities from RE (supplying, installation, and maintenance etc.)
- d. E-bikes project – challenges and opportunities

DAY 4

Session 3: Opportunities for Gov't, Private Sectors, NGOs, Women and Youth

- PCREEE supported initiatives to PICs
- Experiences with delivery of the PCREEE work programme

DAY 4

Session 4: Experiences and achievements from local communities with implementing sustainable energy initiatives

- Sewing machine powered by solar – implement by a Community Women Group in Tuvalu.

DAY 4

Session 5: Private Sector Participation at the Energy Transition in Tuvalu

- Business Registration Process and requirements by the Ministry (Responsible for business licensing) – representative from the Ministry of Labor and Commerce in Tuvalu
- Local Bank supported initiatives and loan schemes to support private sector-business start-up

THANK YOU